Nicci Hays' Girl's Basketball Camp

In 2005 Nicci Hays-Fort finished her third season as the head women's basketball coach at Barry University. Just the fourth head coach in the program's 16-year history, Hays was named by Barry athletic director Michael Covone on July 12, 2002.

Hays teaches a philosophy of sacrifice of individual goals for the welfare of the team. She instills the physical and mental toughness needed for success. She demands that all players strive for greatness both in the classroom and on the court.

Hays came to Barry after spending two seasons as an assistant coach at NCAA Division I Nicholls State University in Thibodaux, La.

Before moving to South Louisiana, Hays spend two seasons at the United States Merchant Marine Academy in Kings Point, N.Y. She was the first women's basketball coach in school history, starting the program from scratch at the NCAA Division III institution. Hays led the Mariners through an informal season in 1999-2000.

Highly active in the summer camp circuit, she has served as an instructor at numerous camps and clinics including Leon Barmore's Lady Techster Camp, Doug Bruno Basketball Camp, the New York Knicks Summer Youth Camps, the Kings Point Basketball camp and University of Miami basketball camps. Hays has been a member to the Women's Sports Foundation since 2000 and the Women's Basketball Coaches Association since 1998.

Camp Staff

The instructional staff will consist of college and high school coaches, along with some college players.

Discipline

Any serious violation of camp regulations, such as damage to the school's property or other behaviors deemed detrimental to the group, will result in dismissal from camp. There will be no refund of fees upon expulsion or upon voluntary withdrawal from camp.
